

MAKE A LITTLE HISTORY OF YOUR OWN:

CABIN FEVER DANCE

AT THE MORRISON TOWN HALL

110 STONE STREET, MORRISON COLORADO

6:30 PM TO 11:30 PM - SATURDAY, JANUARY 26, 2013

◆ FAMILY FRIENDLY, FREE COMMUNITY EVENT ◆

Live Music by the MORRISON TOWN BAND: boot-scooting, rock 'n' roll, some rockabilly, bluegrass and swing thrown in for variety. Band: Steve Neal on flute, mandolin, guitar and harmonica (an Indian Hills native), Chris LeGolian (Morrison) - vocals and guitar, Gary Newsbaum (Conifer) on bass, Gus Chambers (Morrison) vocals, guitar and drums, Special Guest Drummer Bruce McCreary (Morrison) and vocals by Maja and Jamee.

First set starts at 6:30-7pm gets the smallest cowboys and cowgirls tucked out and headed home by 9 p.m. Then the dance floor is taken over by the serious dancers - that old wooden floor gets employed as it was over a hundred years ago.

Together with a brand new FREE movie:
The Raising of the Rooney Ranch: How the Rooney Family Homesteaded in Morrison, Colorado

New this year: Popcorn and snacks (for purchase) at The Club Haus – next to the Town Hall at 106 Stone Street.

Movie showing by Independent Filmmaker, Mike Green, shown at the Club Haus. Our local history in movie form!

Funding goes to Ciderfest, Carolling by Candelight and Christmas Decorations and other historic Morrison preservation events sponsored by the Morrison Action Committee and the Morrison Historical Society.

END: Clean -up and ship out by 11:30 PM